Early Tuesday Morning March 22nd at the

PLATTE COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS in COLUMBUS

NO MORNING SHOW

BULLS - open the sale at 11:30 sharp.

- FEATURES -

Nearly all of the bulls consigned were calved in 1964 or prior and hence are of strong breeding age and ready to go to work. If you are in need of big, good headed, rugged bull with plenty of bone, sound feet and legs, here should be the end of your herd bull problems. Ideal for the registered herd, the commercial herd and the cross-breeding herd.

Twelve of these consignments are of from 2 to 5 bulls each. Perfect for the cattleman who needs several bulls bred alike to sire that uniform crop of calves with weight for age that he has been looking for.

A very useful set of heifers and cows bred to calve by sale time or in early spring. These are the kind of females that have the opportunity of improving the cattle business for their new owners.

A select group of 1965 heifers calves, very well suited for 4-H and FFA projects.

GALLANT FASHION - He is a great bull for his age and should develop into an even greater bull because he is out of the same cow as a bull that stood first in his class at the Futurity Show & Sale in Columbus a few years ago. His sire, Leveldale Fashion, is a big, rugged bull and has a perfect head. As proof, ask some of the breeders that have seen him.

D M PACEMAKER'S DANDY - A calf a bit young to be appreciated. He is very thick and has plenty of size. His dam produced the 1965 Reserve Grand Champion bull at the Nebraska State Fair and the 1962 Nebraska Champion female.

Tuesday, March 22nd - Columbus

Bilmar Warfare

This son of Westdrums Wayfarer and out of Phopachy Queen Gem was a South Dakota Grand Champion bull. He has been used extensively in the Bruhn herd. Twenty-nine of the females in this sale should calve to his services. His breeding potential will be evident in his calves present sale day.

The following 47 lots (51-97) are consigned by the Bruhn Packing Co., Inc., Elkhorn, Nebr. Here are their remarks concerning these female:

"The time has come that we need to reduce our herd to about half its present size. This is a difficult thing to do since a lot of good females need to be sold. All will sell in thrifty conditions in the best of their productive years. The entire consignment, except 1965 heifers, is bred and should have calves or be right up to calving, hence no breeding no breeding dates are listed in the catalog. These calves will be by Bilmar Warfare, the 1964 South Dakota Champion or by Claymor Varsity, a son of Weatdrum Dandy. The yearling heifers are sired by them. The 19 brood cows were purchased from Kohnen & Sherwood of Randolph. Many were carrying the service of Iowa Royal Champion "Golden Viceroy". He is, therefore, on the pedigree of many of the younger females.

Golden Viceroy

Many of the Kohnen-Sherwood females acquired by Mr. Bruhn were carrying the services of this great $3000 bull from the 1959 Iowa Royal sale. Hence many of these females carry his blood close to the top of their pedigrees. His sire, Westdrums Viceroy, was a 1953 Perth Reserve Champion.
